SECTION 7 – ADDENDUMS

ADDENDUM NO. 1 – PRIVACY POLICY

North Balwyn Bowls Club is committed to respecting the right to privacy and the protection of personal information of our members and other persons who engage with North Balwyn Bowls Club. When personal information is provided to North Balwyn Bowls Club, the person consents to its use, storage and disclosure in accordance with this policy.

What personal and sensitive information does North Balwyn Bowls Club collect?

Personal Information

Personal information is information or an opinion (including information or an opinion forming part of a database) from which it is possible to determine someone's identity.

The information collected by North Balwyn Bowls Club about a person will vary depending on the circumstances of collection. It may include, but is not limited to, a person's contact details (name, email and/or postal address, phone number), date of birth, gender, credit card details, driver's licence number, passport number, insurance details, employment history, qualifications or communication history with North Balwyn Bowls Club

Sensitive Information

Sensitive information is a type of personal information that also includes information or an opinion about someone's:

- racial or ethnic origin;
- political opinions;
- membership of a political association, professional or trade association or trade union;
- religious beliefs or affiliations or philosophical beliefs;
- sexual preferences or practices;
- criminal record; or
- health, genetic information or disability.

If it is reasonably necessary in the circumstances, North Balwyn Bowls Club may also collect sensitive information such as a person's medical history, nationality, their ethnic background or disabilities.

North Balwyn Bowls Club is required by law to obtain consent when collecting sensitive information.

North Balwyn Bowls Club will assume consent to the collection of all sensitive information that is provided to it for use in accordance with this policy, unless told otherwise.

How does North Balwyn Bowls Club collect personal and sensitive information?

Providing information

Depending on the circumstances, some types of information will be required, and others might be optional. If you do not provide some or all the information requested, this may affect North Balwyn Bowls Club's ability to communicate with you or provide the requested products or services.

By not providing requested information, you may jeopardise your ability to participate in programs or competitions or apply for employment or volunteer positions with North Balwyn Bowls Club. If it is impracticable for North Balwyn Bowls Club to deal with you because of you not providing the requested information or consent, North Balwyn Bowls Club may refuse to do so.

Collection from third parties

North Balwyn Bowls Club may collect personal information regarding a child from the parent or other responsible person associated with that child. In many circumstances, North Balwyn Bowls Club collects information from other third parties.

Examples of such third parties could include, but is not limited to, the Australian Sports Commission, the Australian Sports Anti-Doping Agency, the Australian Institute of Sport, the Australian Commonwealth Games Association, non-affiliated bowls organisations or government and law enforcement bodies.

Information storage and protection

North Balwyn Bowls Club stores information in different ways, including in paper and electronic form. Much of the information we collect from and about our members is added to North Balwyn Bowls Club's membership database. When your information is entered into North Balwyn Bowls Club's membership database, the information may be combined or linked with other information held about you. North Balwyn Bowls Club's membership database is, in part, shared among Bowls Australia and Bowls Victoria, with each organisation having access to specific information about North Balwyn Bowls Club members.

Security of personal information

North Balwyn Bowls Club has taken steps to protect the information we hold from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. Some of the security measures North Balwyn Bowls Club uses include strict confidentiality requirements of our employees or volunteers and service providers, security measures for system access and security measures for our website.

We seek to protect your personal information from any unauthorised loss, disclosure or access. However, if a serious data breach occurs, we must notify you as required under the Privacy Act regarding the circumstances of the breach, and must also advise the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner.

How does North Balwyn Bowls Club use and disclose personal and sensitive information?

Use

North Balwyn Bowls Club and third parties, to whom we may disclose personal information in accordance with this policy, may use your personal information to:

- a) verify your identity;
- b) complete background checks;
- c) research, develop, run, administer and market competitions, programs, activities and other events relating to bowls;
- d) research or develop and market products, services, merchandise and special offers made available by us and third parties;
